OCTOBER 5 & 6

Monday

901 Q&A about International Affairs

Oct. 5 9:30 - 11:00 a.m. 1.5 hrs.

This is an interactive class. Pertinent to the economy at the time of this presentation, we will discuss the tensions around the continents and the potential impacts on the U.S. politically and economically.

Frank Loh has led this class at Elm Grove School for Lifelong Learning for the past 8 years! An international banker and business instructor, his appearances include Waukesha County Technical College and Concordia University.

902 The Circus Comes to Town & Wisconsin

Oct. 5 11:30 - 1:00 p.m. 1.5 hrs.

Learn about the travels of the Mabie Circus as it settles in Delavan, WI for its permanent quarters. This circus spawns 26 other circuses and forms a circus colony that thrived during the 19th century. Learn about the origin of "pink" lemonade, pythons, the original "International Clown Hall of Fame" founded in 1987 and SO MUCH MORE!

Jane Klockars is a retired teacher and curious explorer of history. Her curiosity was piqued when she wondered why, in Delavan, she found a park with a giraffe, an elephant with a clown, and a lion drinking fountain?

903 Modern Police Work: Overview & Open Forum Question & Answer

Oct. 5 1:30 - 3:30 p.m. 2 hrs.

This class is a synopsis of Jack's career and experience as a police officer; an overview of the current trends and challenges faced by police departments; and an open forum Q&A.

Jack Kelly has been employed by the Milwaukee Police Department for 13 years, first as an Officer (9 years) and then a Detective (4 years.) Currently he is the Investigative Training Coordinator at the Milwaukee Police Academy. He will share how the crimes have changed, and their effect on the population. His many stories and anecdotes will certainly be interesting!
